Dear Parents,

What a lovely Christmas performance the children gave us last night. Their beautiful voices are still ringing in my ears! As I stated last evening, it is wonderful to be able to hold a CHRISTMAS program as opposed to a "holiday" or "winter" one and to celebrate the true meaning of the season! Thank you to all who helped to make the performance such a success...parents, teachers, staff but most especially a huge thank you to Ms. Harvat and Mrs. Kubeck who worked so tirelessly to prepare the children.

Tomorrow is the last day of school before our Christmas vacation and the children are asked to "dress up" in their nice clothes to celebrate Mass and then enjoy a Christmas breakfast. The students will be dismissed at noon and there will be no After Care. We will return to school on Monday, January 6, 2014. A reminder that Wed. January 8th, we will have a noon dismissal to accommodate our monthly staff meeting since we will be closed the first Wednesday of January.

We have some exciting news to share. We are happy to announce that beginning January 6, 2014, Mrs. Elena Malinconico will take on the position of Vice Principal of St. Stanislaus Kostka School in addition to her duties as Middle School Language Arts and eighth grade homeroom teacher. She will aid me in the areas of supervision and discipline. Congratulations Mrs. Malinconico! "

Fr. Ken, the teachers and staff all join me in wishing you a Blessed Christmas and a very Happy and Healthy New Year!

May God continue to bless you and your families.

Mrs. Patricia Graham

Catholic Christmas Prayer
(Nativity Prayer by St. Augustine)
Let the just rejoice,
For their justifier is born.
Let the sick and infirm rejoice,
For their captives rejoice,
For their Redeemer is born.
Let the slaves rejoice,
For their Master is born.
Let free men rejoice,
For their Liberator is born.
Let all Christians rejoice,
For Jesus Christ is born.
